when his highly developed executive talents were required in the Agency's Administrative Directorate. In 1954 he was appointed by Allen W. Dulles, then Director of Central Intelligence, as Deputy Director for Administration. In June 1965 Admiral Raborn, the Director of Central Intelligence at that time, appointed Colonel White as Executive Director-Comptroller, the Agency's top executive-management position.

Statement to be Read to Audience as Colonel White, General Cushman, and League Officer approach the microphone.
